

CARAQUEÑA BEER

CLASSIC LAGER

New international brand produced in the European Union and created by beer-loving entrepreneurs who migrated from Venezuela. It seeks to conquer, through its excellent quality, image and price, more than 7 million Venezuelans (it is estimated + 450,000 in the US and growing), who make their homeland outside their country. In its striking can, a lion stands out, a symbol of Santiago de León de Caracas, establishing an immediate connection with Venezuelans, with baseball, but also with millions of Latinos who are looking for a close brand, that speaks in their language and offers the correct balance. between what you pay and the value you receive.
